- (c) Shares that the Company purchases, redeems or acquires (by way of surrender or otherwise) may be cancelled immediately or held as Treasury Shares in accordance with the Statute and on such terms and conditions as determined by the Directors. In the event that the Directors do not resolve that the relevant shares are to be held as Treasury Shares, such shares shall be cancelled.

- (d) No dividend may be declared or paid, and no other distribution (whether in cash, shares, bonus issue or otherwise) of the Company's assets (including any distribution of assets to Members on a winding up) may be declared or paid in respect of a Treasury Share.

- (e) The Company shall be entered in the Register as the holder of the Treasury Shares provided that:
 - (i) the Company shall not be treated as a Member for any purpose and shall not exercise any right in respect of the Treasury Shares, and any purported exercise of such a right shall be void;
 - (ii) any Treasury Share shall not be voted, directly or indirectly, at any meeting of the Company and shall not be counted in determining the total number of issued shares at any given time, whether for the purposes of these Articles or the Statute.

- (iii) subject to other provisions in these Articles, Treasury Shares may be disposed of, transferred or cancelled by the Company on such terms and conditions as determined by the Directors.
- (f) Without prejudice to the generality of Article 13(e)(iii) and subject to compliance with the Statute, the Company may transfer the Treasury Shares to the employees of the Company and/or of the Company's Subsidiary(ies), and the Board may impose a lock-up period restricting the transfer of any Treasury Shares transferred to the employees pursuant to this Article 13(f) for a term of up to two (2) years, provided, however, if the Company shall transfer the Treasury Shares to the employees of the Company and/or of the Company's Subsidiary(ies) for a consideration that is less than the consideration paid by the Company, such transfer of Treasury Shares is subject to approval by the Members by way of a Special Resolution passed at a general meeting of the Members, and the following matters shall be specified with reasonable explanation in the notice of such general meeting of the Members:
- (i) consideration receivable by the Company for the disposal of the Treasury Shares and the applicable discount rate as determined by reference to the consideration paid by the Company as well as calculation basis and an assessment of the reasonableness thereof;
 - (ii) number of Treasury Shares subject to the transfer, purpose of the transfer and an assessment of the reasonableness thereof;
 - (iii) qualification requirements of employee(s) eligible to purchase such Treasury Shares and the number of Treasury Shares to be purchased by such employee(s); and
 - (iv) effects on the share capital, share premium and profits and loss of the Company, including the amount to be booked as expenses of the Company relating to the transfer, the dilution effect on the Company's per share earning, and any adverse effect on the Company's financial circumstances that may be caused by disposing the Treasury Shares for a consideration that is less than the consideration paid by the Company.

The foregoing matters shall not be discussed or submitted for voting or proposed for discussion or approval at a general meeting unless they have been included in the notice of such general meeting.

- (g) The aggregate number of Treasury Shares to be purchased by the employees of the Company and/or of the Company's Subsidiary(ies) pursuant to approvals obtained at one or more general meetings of the Members under paragraph (f) may not, whether in a single or series of transaction(s), exceed five percent (5%) of the total issued shares of the Company at any time, and the total cumulative amount of shares purchased by any single employee may not, in a single or series of transaction(s), exceed 0.5% of the Company's total number of issued shares at any time.
- (h) Subject to the Statute, these Articles and, where applicable, the rules of the Designated Stock Market and/or any competent regulatory authority, the Company may by Ordinary Resolution authorize and approve a repurchase of its own shares from all of the Members, provided that
 - (i) The number of shares to be repurchased pursuant to a repurchase of Shares described in this Article 13 (h) shall be pro-rata among the Members in proportion to the number of shares held by each such Member and all repurchased shares shall be cancelled;

- (ii) In connection with a repurchase of shares, the Company may make payments in respect of the repurchased shares either in cash or in kind out of any account or funds legally available therefor. The value and amount of any payment in kind shall be determined and approved at the general meeting of the Members and consented to by the Members receiving such payment in kind in writing as consideration for the repurchased shares, and the Board shall have a ROC certified public accountant issue an appraisal and/or audit report in respect of the value and amount of the payment in kind as consideration prior to the general meeting.

Subject to compliance with the above, any approval granted by the Members in accordance with this Article 13(h) shall be binding on each and every Member(s) irrespective of whether such Member was a Member at the time that such approval was granted or whether such Member had abstained from voting, voted for or against such resolution at the general meeting approving such repurchase of shares of the Company and no further transfer document(s) shall be required from any Member whose shares are subject to the repurchase to effect the transfer of the repurchased shares to the Company for cancellation and/or for implementation of the repurchase of shares authorized in accordance with this Article 13(h), save and except where the repurchase price is payable in kind then the written consent of the relevant Member receiving such payment in kind shall be required.

- (i) Subject to Applicable Law and the requirements of these Articles, the Company may, by a majority vote cast at a meeting of the Board at which two thirds (2/3) or more of the total number of Directors are present, grant such number of employee stock options, and set forth the terms of employee stock option issuance and exercise plan. Employee stock options may be granted to the employees of the Company and/or of the Company's Subsidiary(ies) in accordance with the Applicable Law. A total of [10,000,000] shares among the authorised shares of the Company should be reserved for issuing shares upon an exercise of the employee stock options. An employee stock option shall not be transferrable, except through transfer by inheritance or intestacy.

VARIATION OF RIGHTS OF SHARES

- 14. (a) If at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the sanction of a Special Resolution passed at a general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.
 - (b) The provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings shall apply to every such general meeting of the holders of one class of shares.
- 15 The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.

18. In case of the death of a Member, the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder, and the legal personal representatives of the deceased where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares, but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of any such deceased holder from any liability in respect of any shares which had been held by him solely or jointly with other persons.
 - (a) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy or liquidation or dissolution of a Member (or in any other way than by transfer) may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to make such transfer of the share to such other person nominated by him as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made and to have such person registered as the transferee thereof, but the Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that Member before his death or bankruptcy as the case may be.
 - (b) If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself as holder he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.
20. A person becoming entitled to a share in certificated form by reason of the death or bankruptcy or liquidation or dissolution of the holder (or in any other case than by transfer) shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a Member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company PROVIDED HOWEVER that the Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days the Directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

AMENDMENT OF MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION, CHANGE OF LOCATION OF REGISTERED OFFICE & ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

21. (a) Subject to and in so far as permitted by the provisions of the Statute, the Company may from time to time by Special Resolution alter or amend its Memorandum of Association to :
- (i) increase the share capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amount as the resolution shall prescribe and with such rights, priorities and privileges annexed thereto, as the Company in general meeting may determine.
 - (ii) consolidate any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
 - (iii) subdivide its existing shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association; or
 - (iv) cancel any shares which at the date of passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person; provided that any share(s) issued by the Company without any par or nominal value shall not by any means be converted or re-designated into share(s) with par or nominal value and any share(s) issued by the Company with par or nominal value shall also not by any means be converted or re-designated into share(s) without par or nominal value.
- (b) All new shares created hereunder shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the same provisions as the shares in the original share capital.
- (c) Subject to the provisions of the Statute, the Company may by Special Resolution change its name or alter its objects.
- (d) Subject to the provisions of the Statute, the Company may by Special Resolution reduce its share capital (including cancellation of issued shares) or any capital redemption reserve fund in any manner permitted by the Statute. Where a reduction of issued share capital is to be effected by way of cancellation of issued shares, the number of issued shares to be cancelled against each Member's shareholding shall be determined on a pro rata basis based on the total number of issued shares held by such Member relative to the total number of issued shares.
- (e) Subject to the provisions of the Statute, the Company may by resolution of the Directors change the location of its registered office.

CLOSING REGISTER OF MEMBERS OF FIXING RECORD DATE

22. The Register of Members shall be closed for sixty (60) days prior to the date the annual general meeting is scheduled to convene and thirty (30) days prior to the date the extraordinary general meeting is scheduled to convene. For the purpose of determining Members entitled to notice of or to vote at any such annual or extraordinary general meeting of Members or any adjournment thereof, the Directors of the Company are entitled to fix a record date by reference to the proposed date of such annual or extraordinary general meeting of Members.
23. For the purpose of determining the Members entitled to receive payment of any dividend or distribution, the Register of Members shall be closed for five (5) days prior to the date of the declaration of such dividend or distribution in accordance with Article 111. Subject to the requirements of these Articles, Members whose names are recorded in the Register of Members upon commencement of the above closure period shall be entitled to receive payment of any dividend or distribution, whichever the case may be.

PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS OF EXISTING MEMBERS

24. Unless waived by an Ordinary Resolution of Members, the Company shall, when conducting any share offering other than an issuance of shares resulting from or in connection with any merger, consolidation, split-off, amalgamation, asset acquisition, group reorganisation, Share Swap, share subdivision, exercise of share options, warrants or awards granted to employees, conversion of convertible securities or debt instruments or pursuant to resolutions of the Board passed conditionally or unconditionally before the date these Articles became effective, subject to the Employees Pre-emptive Rights (if any), grant to the Members pre-emptive rights (the "Members Pre-emptive Rights") to subscribe for new shares of the Company in proportion respectively to their then shareholdings and advise Members, by public announcement in such manner as may be permitted by the Applicable Law and give notice to the Members of their pre-emptive rights. The Company may, if so resolved by the Board, grant to the employees (the "Employees Pre-emptive Rights") of the Company and/or of the Company's Subsidiary(ies) pre-emptive rights to subscribe for 10% to 15% of the total number of shares offered in the abovementioned share offering and the Members Pre-emptive Rights shall be made subject to the Employees Pre-emptive Rights; provided, however, that the Board may impose a lock-up period restricting the transfer of any shares subscribed by the Employees pursuant to this Article 26 for a term of up to two (2) years.

25. The Company shall include in its notice to the Members an explanation relating to the share offering and procedures as to how their pre-emptive rights may be exercised, and shall specify the terms and conditions (as determined by the Board in its absolute discretion) in accordance with which the Members may exercise their pre-emptive rights. The Company shall also indicate in the notice that Members' failure to exercise their pre-emptive right in the manner so specified (including failing to exercise pre-emptive rights prior to the deadline) shall be deemed a waiver to such right. Where an exercise of the pre-emptive rights may result in fractional entitlement, the fractional entitlements of two or more Members may be aggregated to jointly subscribe for one or more whole new shares in the name of a single Member, subject to compliance with such discretions and terms and conditions as determined by the Board. Any share not taken up in the share offering may be offered by the Company to the public or for subscription by designated person(s).
26. When the Company conducts a share offering other than issuance of shares resulting from or in connection with any merger, consolidation, split-off, amalgamation, asset acquisition, group reorganisation, Share Swap, share subdivision, exercise of share options, warrants or awards granted to employees, conversion of convertible securities or debt instruments within the ROC in accordance with the ROC Securities Exchange Act and the ROC Regulations Governing the Offering and Issuance of Securities by Foreign Securities Issuer, unless the ROC competent authority deems the public offering of the new shares unnecessary or inappropriate, ten percent (10%) or any greater percentage as resolved by the Members at a general meeting (if any) of the total number of new shares to be issued shall be made available for public investors by way of public offering within the ROC in accordance with Applicable Law.

GENERAL MEETING

 - (a) The Company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting no later than six (6) months after the close of each fiscal year. General meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
 - (b) General meetings of the Company can be convened by means of electronic facilities, visual communication network or other methods promulgated by the central competent authority which permit all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other simultaneously and instantaneously. The visual communication network shall be subject to the prerequisites, procedures, and other compliance matters set by the competent authority of the Company Act of the ROC to the extent that they do not conflict with or contravene the laws of the Cayman Islands. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

- (c) In addition to sub-paragraphs (d) and (e) below and Article 29, general meetings of the Company shall be convened by the Board and may be held at such time and place (unless the meeting is to be held electronically without any physical place of meeting) as may be determined the Board. Such meeting shall be convened in the ROC, and may be convened outside the territory of the ROC only if an application has been submitted to the Designated Stock Market for approval within two (2) days after the date of the Board resolve to convene such meeting, and such approval has been obtained by the Company.
 - (d) One or more Member(s) holding fifty percent (50%) or more of the total number of the outstanding voting shares of the Company continuously for a period of three months or a longer time may convene an extraordinary general meeting of the Company. The calculation of the holding period and number of shares being held shall be determined in accordance with the Register of Members of the Company as of the date and time when the Register of Members of the Company is closed for transfer of shares of the Company before the aforesaid extraordinary general meeting of the Company is held.
 - (e) In the event that the Board do not or is unable to convene a general meeting of shareholders, the Audit Committee may, for the benefit of the Company, convene a meeting of shareholders when it is deemed necessary.
 - (f) The Board or other authorized conveners of general meeting may require the Company or its agent of stock affairs to provide with the Register of Members.
 - (g) When a general meeting is convened outside the territory of the ROC, the Company shall appoint an agent of stock affairs within the ROC to administer and handle affairs relating to voting by Members at such general meeting.
 - (h) To the maximum extent permitted under the laws of the Cayman Islands and the Statute, the Members may, by Special Resolution, adopt or amend any rules and procedures, including the Procedural Rules of General Meeting of Members governing the general meeting of the Members. In the event of any inconsistency between the main content of these Articles and the Procedural Rules of General Meeting of Members, the Articles shall prevail to the extent required by any Applicable Law.
28. One or more Member(s) holding three percent (3%) or more of the total number of the outstanding voting shares of the Company continuously for a period of one (1) year or more, by filing with the Company a written proposal setting forth therein the subjects for discussion, consideration and approval and the reasons thereof, shall be entitled to request the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting of the Company.
29. If the Board does not within fifteen (15) days after receiving the request duly proceed to call an extraordinary general meeting, the Member(s) making such request may convene an extraordinary general meeting by sending out a notice of general meeting in accordance with Article 30. The Board will not be required to prepare the manual referred to in Article 32 where a general meeting is convened by Member(s) according to this Article 29. Such meeting shall be held within the ROC and may be convened outside the territory of the ROC only if an application has been submitted to the Designated Stock Market for approval and such approval has been obtained. Subject to the aforesaid, a general meeting convened as aforesaid by requisitionists shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which general meetings are to be convened by the Directors.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

30. At least thirty (30) days' notice of an annual general meeting and fifteen (15) days' notice for an extraordinary meeting (exclusive of the day on which the notice is dispatched, and the day on which the meeting is to be held) shall be given to each Member entitled to attend and vote thereat, stating the date, place (save for a meeting which is to be held entirely electronically without any physical place of meeting) and time at which the meeting is to be held and, as far as practicable, the other business to be conducted at the meeting. If a general meeting is to be held by way of electronic facilities, visual communication network or other methods promulgated by the competent authority of the Company Act of the ROC in whole or in part, the notice of general meeting shall include a statement to such effect and with details of the electronic facilities, visual communication network or other methods promulgated by the central competent authority to be provided for attendance and participation by such means at such meeting or in any event, such details shall be made available by the Company prior to the meeting.
31. (a) Any notice or document, whether or not, to be given or issued under these Articles from the Company to a Member shall be in writing or by cable, telex or facsimile transmission message or other form of electronic transmission or communication and any such notice and document may be served or delivered by the Company on or to any Member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid envelope addressed to such Member at his registered address as appearing in the register of Members or at any other address supplied by him to the Company for the purpose or, as the case may be, by transmitting it to any such address or transmitting it to any telex or facsimile transmission number or electronic number or address or website supplied by him to the Company for the giving of notice to him or which the person transmitting the notice reasonably and bona fide believes at the relevant time will result in the notice being duly received by the Member or may also be served by advertisement in appropriate newspapers in accordance with the requirements of the Designated Stock Exchange or, to the extent permitted by the applicable laws, by placing it on the Company's website or the website of the Designated Stock Exchange. In the case of joint holders of a share all notices shall be given to that one of the joint holders whose name stands first in the register of Members and notice so given shall be deemed a sufficient service on or delivery to all the joint holders.
- (b) Any notice shall be deemed to have been served at the time when the same would be delivered in the ordinary course of transmission and, in proving such service, it shall be sufficient to prove that the notice was properly addressed and prepaid, if posted, and the time when it was posted, delivered to the courier or to the cable company or transmitted by telex, facsimile, electronic mail, or such other method as the case may be.
- (c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, for as long as the Company's shares are listed on the Designated Stock Market, any requirement with respect to Notice, including the manners and means of which such notice is sent, shall be in compliance with the Applicable Law and the rules of the Designated Stock Market.
- (d) The accidental omission to give notice of a general meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings of that meeting.
- (e) A notice may be given by the Company to person or persons which the Company has been advised are entitled to a share or shares in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member by sending it through the post as aforesaid in a pre-paid letter addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt, or by any like description at the address supplied for that purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled, or at the option of the Company by giving the notice in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.

- (f) Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any manner hereinbefore authorised to:
 - (i) every person shown as a Member in the register of Members as of the record date for such meeting except that in the case of joint holders the notice shall be sufficient if given to the joint holder first named in the register of Members.
 - (ii) every person upon whom the ownership of a share devolves by reason of his being a legal personal representative or a trustee in bankruptcy of a Member of record where the Member of record but for his death or bankruptcy would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting; and
- (g) No other person shall be entitled to receive notices of general meetings.

MANUAL AND PROPOSAL FOR DISCUSSION

- 32. (a) For as long as the Company's shares are listed on the Designated Stock Market, the Board shall prepare a manual setting out the agenda of a general meeting of Members (including all the subjects and matters to be resolved at the meeting), and shall make public announcement(s) by uploading the content of the manual any other supplemental information to an electronic database designated by the Designated Stock Market at least twenty-one (21) days prior to a general annual meeting and at least fifteen (15) days prior to an extraordinary annual meeting. Such manual shall be distributed to the Members attending the general meeting in person, by proxy or by corporate representative(s) (where the Member is a corporation) at the general meeting. In the case that the Company's paid-in capital at the end of the most recent fiscal year exceeds NT$2 billion or at the last general meeting held in the current recent fiscal year, the total shareholding ratio of foreign capital and mainland capital recorded in the Register of Member was more than thirty percent (30%), the manual shall be distributed to the Members by electronic form at least thirty (30) days prior to a general meeting.
 - (b) For as long as the Company's shares are listed on the Designated Stock Market, the Board shall prepare, and make public announcement(s) the notice of the general meeting, proxy instrument, matters for discussion, and where applicable, information relating to the election or removal of directors, by uploading such information to an electronic database designated by the Designated Stock Market at least thirty (30) days prior to a general annual meeting and at least fifteen (15) days prior to an extraordinary annual meeting. Where the Board has resolved to allow Members to exercise their voting power and cast their votes by a written instrument approved by the Board in accordance with Article 55, the Company shall distribute the above information together with the written instrument approved by the Board to the Members.
33. Any Member holding not less than one percent (1%) of the Company's total and outstanding shares may submit a proposal in writing or by way of electronic transmission to the Company for discussion at an annual general meeting. The Company shall give a public notice in such manner as permitted by Applicable Law deemed appropriate by the Board specifying the place and a period of not less than ten (10) days for Members to submit proposals or the electronic address where any electronic communication is to be sent. Unless (i) the proposal is submitted by such Member(s) who hold(s) less than one percent (1%) of the Company's total and outstanding shares; (ii) the proposal consists of a matter which as determined by the Directors is not a matter which can be resolved or settled at a general meeting of the Members in accordance with or under the Applicable Laws; (iii) the proposal exceeded three hundred words or relates to more than one matter; or (iv) the proposal is submitted after expiration of the specified period determined by the Board, Board shall include the proposal in the list of proposals to be discussed at the meeting of shareholders. If the shareholder proposal is for urging the Company to promote public interests or fulfill its social responsibilities, such proposal may still be included in the list of proposals to be discussed at the meeting of shareholders by the Board notwithstanding that it falls within aforesaid items (i), (ii) (iii) or (iv). Subject to Article 34 and to the extent permitted under the Statute, a Member may, if so approved by the chairman of the relevant general meeting, bring forward any matter(s) during a general meeting for the consideration, discussion or approval by the Members at such general meeting, provided such matter(s) falls within the scope and directly relates to a matter included in the notice of general meeting.

34. Subject to these Articles, the following matters may not be considered, discussed or proposed for approval at a general meeting unless they have been included in the notice of general meeting with reasonable amount of explanation, and its essential contents may be posted on the website designated by the competent authority or the Company, and such website shall be indicated in the notice.
- (a) any election or removal of Directors;
 - (b) any amendment or modification to the Memorandum of Association or these Articles, including any change of the Company name;
 - (c) reduction of capital;
 - (d) application for the approval to cease its status as a public company;
 - (e) any dissolution, voluntary winding-up, Share Swap, merger, consolidation, amalgamation or split-up of the Company;
 - (f) any proposal for the Company to enter into, amend, or terminate any Lease Contract, Management Contract or Joint Operation Contract;
 - (g) transfer whole or any substantial part of the Company's business or assets;
 - (h) acquisition of whole of the business or assets of a third-party, which materially affects the operation of the Company;
 - (i) any issuance of equity-linked securities of the Company by way of private placement;
 - (j) to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, any proposal to approve a Director to engage in competitive activities with the Company;
 - (k) upon recommendation of the Board, any proposal to distribute cash and/or stock dividends or distributions out of surplus in whole or in part by way of issuance of new shares of the Company;
 - (l) distribution of amounts, by issuing new shares or by cash, in the legal reserve and the capital reserve derived from share premium or donations received by the Company;
 - (m) transfer of Treasury Shares to the employees of the Company and/or of the Company's Subsidiary(ies) for a consideration that is less than the consideration paid by the Company in accordance with Article 13(f);
 - (n) issuance of any shares of the Company with deferred rights or subject to restrictions (whether contractual or otherwise) in accordance with the terms of their issue to the employees of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries; and
 - (o) granting of employee stock options with an exercise price per share that is lower than the closing price of shares of the Company traded on the Taiwan Stock Exchange as of the grant date.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

35. (a) Save as herein otherwise provided (in particular, Article 47) and subject to any additional requirements provided for under these Articles, one or more Members holding in the aggregate more than one-half (1/2) of the total issued share capital of

- the Company present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall be a quorum for convening a general meeting. If the Company shall at any time have only one Member, one Member present in person or by proxy shall form a quorum for the transaction of business at any general meeting of the Company held during such time.
- (b) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time that the meeting proceeds to business. If a quorum of Members is not present at the commencement time of a general meeting, the chairman of the general meeting may postpone the commencement time of the general meeting not more than twice provided that the total postponement time shall not exceed one hour from the original commencement time. If after two postponements the number of shares represented by the attending Members has not yet constitute more than one-half (1/2) of the total issued shares, the chairman shall announce the dissolution of the Meeting.
36. (a) The Chairman, if any, of the Board of Directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company, or if there is no such Chairman, or if he shall not be present, the Directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
- (b) If at any general meeting no Director is willing to act as chairman or if no Director is present, the Members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
37. The Members may resolve to adjourn the meeting within five days in accordance with Article 182 of the ROC Company Act.
38. The agenda of the general meeting shall be set by the Board of Directors if it is convened by the Board of Directors. Unless otherwise resolved at the general meeting, a general meeting shall proceed in accordance with the agenda. Unless otherwise resolved at the general meeting, or in exceptional cases, when there are incidents that temporarily prevent the normal progress of the general meeting, the chairman may decide to temporarily suspend the meeting and announce, depending on the situation, the time that the meeting will resume, the chairman cannot announce adjournment of the meeting before all items listed in the agenda are resolved. In case that the chairman adjourns the general meeting in violation of the Procedural Rules of General Meeting of Members, other members of the Board of Directors shall promptly assist the attending Members to elect, by a majority of votes represented by attending Members present in the Meeting, another person to serve as the chairman to continue the meeting in accordance with due procedures.
39. Resolutions made at a general meeting shall be compiled in the form of minutes. The chairman shall affix his/her signature or seal to the minutes, which shall be issued to Members within twenty (20) days after the end of the meeting. Minutes may be produced and issued to Members in electronic form. For as long as the Company's shares are listed on the Designated Stock Market, the minutes may be issued to Members by means of a public notice in accordance with the Applicable Law.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

40. A resolution shall be voted on by way of a poll. Subject to the provisions of the Statute and these Articles, any question proposed for the consideration of the Members at any general meeting shall be decided by way of an Ordinary Resolution, unless such question proposed is required to be decided by a Special Resolution or a resolution of Members with a higher approval threshold pursuant to the provisions of these Articles or the Statute.

41. Voting at a general meeting shall be based on the number of shares issued and held by the Members. On a poll, every Member presenting person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder.
42. In the case of joint holders of record the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register of Members.
43. A Member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court, having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote by his committee, receiver, curator bonis, or other person in the nature of a committee, receiver or curator bonis appointed by that court, and any such committee, receiver, curator bonis or other persons may vote by proxy.
44. No Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless he is registered as a shareholder of the Company on the record date for such meeting nor other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the Company have been paid.
 - (a) To the extent required by the Applicable Law, the Member who bears a personal interest that may conflict with and impair the interests of the Company in respect of any matter proposed for consideration and approval at a general meeting shall abstain from voting any of the shares that such Member should otherwise be entitled to vote in person, as a proxy for another Member or corporate representative with respect to the said matter, but all such shares shall be counted in the quorum for the purpose of convening a general meeting pursuant to Article 35(a); provided that such Member shall not be counted as person being entitled to vote for such matter(s); the shares of Members who are required to abstain from voting shall not be counted in the number of votes of Member(s) present in respect of the relevant resolution(s) in respect of which such Member(s) is/are required to abstain from voting. To the extent that the Company has knowledge, any votes cast by or on behalf of such Member in contravention of the foregoing shall not be counted by the Company.
 - (b) To the extent required by and subject to the Applicable Law, if a Director, immediately prior to a general meeting, has charged, mortgaged or otherwise created or permitted the creation of encumbrance over more than one-half (1/2) of the total number of shares of the Company held by such Director as of the date of his appointment ("Original Shareholding"), such Director shall abstain from voting such number (rounded to the nearest whole number) of shares that exceeds one-half (1/2) of the Original Shareholding, and in respect of such number (rounded to the nearest whole number) of shares that the Director is required to abstain from voting, they shall not be counted in the number of votes of Members present at the meeting but shall be counted in the quorum for the purpose of convening a general meeting pursuant to Article 35(a). To the extent that the Company has knowledge, any votes cast by or on behalf of such Director in contravention of the foregoing shall not be counted by the Company.
46. Shares of the Company held by the following persons shall not carry any voting rights and shall not be counted in the total number of outstanding shares of the Company which are entitled to vote for purposes of convening a general meeting pursuant to Article 35(a):
 - (1) Any shares purchased by the Company which are held as Treasury Shares; or
 - (2) Any entity in which the Company is legally or beneficially interested in more than fifty percent (50%) of its issued and voting shares capital or equity capital; or
 - (3) Any entity in which the Company together with the holding company of the Company, or with any subsidiary of the holding company of the Company, are legally or beneficially interested in more than fifty percent (50%) of its issued and voting shares capital or equity capital.

47. Subject to any additional and applicable requirements under the Statute and without prejudice to Article 47B, the following matters require approval of the Members by way of a Special Resolution:
- (1) any proposal of the Company to enter into, amend, or terminate any Lease Contract, Management Contract or Joint Operation Contracts;
 - (2) any proposal to transfer or dispose of the whole or any substantial part of the Company's business or assets;
 - (3) any proposal to acquire the whole of the business or assets of a third-party, which will have material effect on the operations of the Company;
 - (4) upon recommendation of the Board, any proposal to distribute dividends or other distributions in whole or in part by way of issuance of new shares of the Company other than any distribution of bonus shares in connection with the Employees' Remunerations and Directors' Remunerations pursuant to Article 111;
 - (5) any dissolution, merger, consolidation, amalgamation, split-off or a splitting of the Company;
 - (6) any issuance of equity-linked securities of the Company by way of private placement;
 - (7) any proposal for the Company's shares to stop being publicly traded;
 - (8) granting of employee stock options with an exercise price per share that is lower than the closing price of shares of the Company traded on the Taiwan Stock Exchange as of the grant date; and
 - (9) any Share Swap pursuant to which all of the issued shares of the Company will be transferred to another person in exchange for which, shares, cash or other assets in that other person will be paid or issued to the Members as consideration.
- 47B. Subject to any additional and applicable requirements under the Applicable Law, if there is (i)(a) any merger, consolidation or amalgamation involving the Company which results in the cessation or dissolution of the Company; (b) any transfer of the whole or substantial part of assets or business of the Company; (c) any arrangement, scheme or plan involving an exchange of shares of the Company for shares or equity interests in another entity; (d) any split or spin-off of assets of the Company (any of such event, the "Trigger Event"); and (ii) the resulting, surviving, consolidated or amalgamated entity or acquirer or transferee of shares, assets or business of the Company is not be a listed or OTC company, then any such Trigger Event shall be subject to approval of the Members by way of a resolution passed by such Member(s) holding an absolute majority of at least two-thirds of the total number of issued shares of the Company entitled to vote thereon (irrespective of whether holder(s) of such shares are present or not at the general meeting), as being entitled to do so, voted in person or, in the case of such Members as are corporations, by their respective duly authorised representative or, where proxies are allowed, by proxy at a general meeting of which the quorum is present.
48. (a) On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.
(b) Any corporation which is a Member may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or at any meeting of any class of Members. The person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of such corporation as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member and such corporation shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be present in person at any such meeting if a person so authorised is present thereat.

- (c) For so long as the shares of the Company are listed on the Designated Stock Exchange, where a Member is a clearing house, depository, custodian and/or trustee (or its/their nominee(s) and, in each case, being a corporation, "Third Party Holder"), it may authorise such persons as it thinks fit to act as its representatives at any meeting of the Company or at any meeting of any class of Members provided that the authorisation shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such representative is so authorised. Each person so authorised under the provisions of these Articles shall be entitled to exercise the same rights and powers on behalf of the Third Party Holder as if such person was the registered holder of the shares of the Company held by the Third Party Holder in respect of the number and class of shares specified in the relevant authorisation."
 - (d) To the extent permissible under the laws of the Cayman Islands and these Articles, the qualifications, scopes, methods, procedures, and other details for the Member to exercise the voting rights under the preceding paragraph (c) shall be in compliance with the Applicable Law.
49. Any corporation which is a Member of record of the Company may in accordance with its Articles or in the absence of such provision by resolution of its Directors or other governing body authorizes such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or of any class of Members of the Company, and the person so authorized shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member of record of the Company.

PROXIES

50. Any Member entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company shall be entitled to appoint another person as his proxy to attend and vote on behalf of him at a general meeting of the Company; provide that a Member, irrespective of how many shares he holds, may only appoint one proxy to represent him and vote on his behalf. A proxy need not be a Member of the Company.
51. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing and shall be executed under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or, if the appointer is a corporation under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised in that behalf, which instrument of proxy shall be in a form determined by the Board and provided to the Members in accordance with Article 52, and shall include such information considered necessary by the Company, including instruction to Member for completion of the proxy, proxy voting instruction and basic information of the Member appointing the proxy and of the proxy appointed.
52. The Board may send out the form of instrument for appointing a proxy either by post or electronic transmission in or by way of note to or in any document accompanying the notice convening the meeting on the same delivery date with the notice of any meeting forms of instrument of proxy for use at the meeting. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be delivered to the Registered Office of the Company or at such other place as is specified in the notice for that purpose not less than five (5) days before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote and in default, save with respect to the deemed appointment of the chairman as proxy under Article 55, the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid PROVIDED that the chairman of the meeting may in his discretion accept an instrument of proxy sent by telex or telefax upon receipt of telex or telefax confirmation that the signed original thereof has been sent.

53. Where multiple instruments of proxy are received by the Company from the same Member, the first written duly executed and valid instrument of proxy received by the Company shall prevail, unless an explicit written statement revoking the previous instrument(s) appointing a proxy is made in the subsequent duly executed and valid instrument of proxy received by the Company. The Board shall have the final discretion to determine which instrument of proxy shall be accepted where there is any dispute. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy is given, or the notice of casting vote by way of written notice or electronic commissions pursuant to Article 55; provided that the Company has not been notified in writing of such death, insanity or revocation as aforesaid at its Registered Office or at an address specified in the proxy form, or by written notice from the Member revoking the proxy and expressing his intent to attend the meeting in person or to vote by way of written notice or electronic commissions pursuant to Article 55 at least two (2) days before the date of the general meeting, or adjourned meeting, at which the proxy proposes to vote. .
54. Unless otherwise provided in these Articles, the instrument of proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to vote on any amendment of a resolution put to the meeting for which it is given as the proxy thinks fit. The instrument of proxy shall, unless the contrary is stated therein, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates
55. To the extent permitted by Applicable Law and notwithstanding any provisions provided in these Articles, the Board may resolve to allow Members not attending and voting at a general meeting in person, by proxy or by corporate representatives (where a Member is a corporation), to exercise their voting power and cast their votes by way of electronic transmission (as provided under the ROC Electronic Signatures Act) two (2) days prior to commencement of the general meeting, provided that the relevant methods and procedures are specified in the notice of that meeting and complied with by such Member(s). For the avoidance of doubt, those Members who have voted in the manner mentioned in the foregoing shall, for purposes of these Articles and the Statute, be deemed to have appointed the chairman of the general meeting as their proxy to vote their shares at the general meeting in the manner directed by the written instrument or electronic document. The chairman as proxy shall not have the power to exercise the voting rights of such Members with respect to any matters not referred to or indicated in the written or electronic document and/or any amendment to resolution(s) proposed at the general meeting, and the Members shall be deemed to have waived their voting rights with respect to any extemporary matters or amendment to resolution(s) proposed at the general meeting.
56. (a) Where a Member has exercised the voting power and has cast its votes by written instrument or by way of electronics transmission intends to attend the meeting physically in person, such Member shall send a separate written declaration of intention to rescind and revoke the votes casted by way of written instrument or electronic transmission to the Company, whichever was previously exercised by the Member, two (2) days prior to the date of the general meeting failing which, the Member shall be deemed to have waived his right to attend and vote at the relevant general meeting in person, the deemed appointment by the Member of the chairman as proxy shall remain valid and the Company shall not count any votes cast by such Member physically at the relevant general meeting.
- (b) Where multiple written instrument or electronic transmission for the same meeting are received by the Company from the same Member, the first written duly executed and valid written instrument or electronic transmission received by the Company shall prevail, unless an explicit written statement revoking the previous instrument(s) or transmission is made in the subsequent duly executed and valid instrument or transmission received by the Company. The Board shall have the final discretion to determine which written instrument or electronic transmission shall be accepted where there is any dispute.

57. A Member who is deemed to have appointed the chairman as proxy pursuant to Article 55 for purposes of casting his vote by written instrument approved by the Board or by way of electronic transmission shall have the right to appoint another person as its proxy to attend the meeting, in which case the express appointment of another proxy shall be deemed to have revoked the deemed appointment of the chairman as proxy under Article 55 and the Company shall only count the vote(s) casted by such expressly appointed proxy at the meeting.
58. Except for an ROC trust enterprise or stock agency approved by the ROC competent authority, save with respect to the chairman being deemed appointed as proxy under Article 55, when a person acts as the proxy for two or more Members, the total number of voting shares that the proxy may vote shall not exceed three percent (3%) of the total number of voting shares of the Company; otherwise, such number of voting shares in excess of the aforesaid threshold shall not be counted towards the number of votes cast for or against the relevant resolution or the number of voting shares entitled to vote on such resolution but such shares shall be included in the quorum. Upon such exclusion, the number of voting shares being excluded and attributed to each Member represented by the same proxy shall be determined on a pro-rata basis based on the total number of voting shares being excluded and for which the number of voting shares that such Members have appointed the proxy to vote.
59. To the extent permissible under Applicable Law and subject to compliance with these Articles and the Statute, when a proxy is used by a member in a general meeting, the relevant provisions under the "ROC Regulations Governing the Use of Proxies for Attendance at Shareholder Meetings of Public Companies" shall also apply.

ANNULMENT OF RESOLUTIONS

60. To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, where the procedures for convening a general meeting or the proceedings of the general meeting contravene any applicable laws, regulations, ordinances, Applicable Law or these Articles, any Member may submit a petition within thirty (30) days from the date of such general meeting to a competent court having proper jurisdiction, including, the ROC Taipei District Court, if applicable, for annulment of such resolution.

APPRAISAL RIGHT OF DISSENTING MEMBERS

61. Subject to compliance with Applicable Law, a Member who has expressed his dissent, in writing or verbally with a record, before or during a general meeting, with respect to any resolution proposed at a general meeting in relation to the following matter(s), may vote against or abstain from exercising his voting rights in respect of such resolution(s) and request the Company to acquire or purchase his share(s) at the then prevailing fair price:
 - (a) splitting part of the business or assets of the Company by way of disposal or otherwise;
 - (b) a merger, Acquisition or Share Swap of the Company pursuant to which all of the

- issued shares of the Company will be transferred to another person in exchange for which, shares, cash or other assets in that other person will be paid or issued to the Members as consideration;
- (c) the Company proposes to enter into, amend, or terminate any Lease Contract, Management Contract or Joint Operation Contract;
 - (d) transfer whole or any substantial part of the Company's business or assets; and
 - (e) acquisition of whole of the business or assets of a third-party, which materially affects the operation of the Company.
62. Subject to the above, the Member shall give written notice to request the Company to acquire or purchase his shares no later than twenty (20) days after the passing of a conditional or unconditional resolution approving any of the above matter(s) at the relevant general meeting, and shall state in such request the class, number of shares and the asking price for the repurchase buying back that such Member requests the Company to repurchase.
63. Without prejudice to the Statute, if agreement on the price of the shares can be reached between the dissenting Member and the Company, the Company shall, subject to compliance with these Articles and the Statute, repurchase and pay for the shares within ninety (90) days of the date of the resolution passed by the Members under Article 61. In case no agreement is reached between the Company and the dissenting Member, the Company shall pay to the dissenting Member the offer price approved pursuant to the resolution passed by the Members under Article 61 within ninety (90) days of the date of such resolution. If no payment has been made by the Company within ninety (90) days of the date of the resolution passed by the Members under Article 61, the Company shall be deemed to have agreed to the repurchase price requested by the dissenting Member. The Member who has voted against or abstained from exercising his voting rights during the general meeting in relation to the matters described under Article 61 may request the Company to acquire or purchase his share(s). If no agreement is reached within sixty (60) days of the date on which the resolution of Members under Article 61 was passed, to the extent that the laws of ROC prevail, the Company may, within thirty (30) days from the date on which the sixty day (60) period expires, apply to a competent court for a ruling on the price against the dissenting Members who hasn't reach an agreement with the Company as the opposing party in the Taipei District Court as the court of first instance. Shares for which voting right has been abstained in the general meeting described in Article 61 shall be counted in the quorum of that general meeting; provided that such Member who abstained his voting right shall not be counted as person being entitled to vote for such matter(s).
64. The payment of repurchase price to the Members shall be made at the same time against the delivery of the relevant share certificate(s) and an instrument(s) of transfer (where the shares are in certificated form) in respect of the shares subject to such instrument(s) of transfer (where the shares are in certificated form) for the repurchase being duly executed by such Member to the Company, and the date of transfer of such shares shall be the date on which payment is made by the Company to the Member and the Register of Members of the Company shall be updated accordingly.
65. The request of a Member pursuant to Article 62 above shall become ineffective if the Company announces before completion of the purchase under Article 63 that the Company will not proceed with the matters that such Member dissented to under Article 61 or where the Company is prohibited under Applicable Law to repurchase the relevant shares. Where a Member fails to make a request within the period prescribed in Articles 62 and 63 above, such Member is deemed to have duly waived his rights under Article 61.

DIRECTORS

- (a) The Board shall consist of no less than five (5) directors. At least three (3) of the directors shall be Independent Directors pursuant to Article 70, and the total number of Independent Directors shall not be less than one-fifth (1/5) of the total number of Directors. When a Member is a corporate entity, it may be elected as a corporate Director provided that it shall designate at least one natural person as its authorized representative to act for and on its behalf as a Director. The authorized representative of a corporate Member may also be elected as a Director in its own individual capacity. If a corporate Member designates more than one representatives, all of the representatives are eligible to be elected as Directors in their own individual capacity.
- (b) The term of office for a Director shall not exceed three (3) years and the Director whose term has expired may be eligible for re-election. If the term of office of all Directors expires at the same time and no general meeting was held before such expiry for their re-election, their term of office shall be extended to the time when the new Directors elected or re-elected in the next general meeting assume their office.
- (c) Where there is a re-election of all Directors at a general meeting prior to the expiry of the term of office of the existing Directors, if no resolution has been passed by the Members to approve that the existing Directors who are not re-elected at such general meeting shall remain in office until expiry of their original term of office or such other date as approved by the Members at the general meeting, such non-re-elected Directors shall vacate their office with effect from closing of such general meeting.
- (d) In addition to such applicable requirements and to the extent permissible under the Statute, each Director shall comply with the applicable requirements under the Applicable Law relating to qualification and obligations of directors of a company whose shares are listed on the Designated Stock Market.
- (e) The election of the directors shall adopt candidates nomination system and such adoption shall comply with ROC SEA and the ROC Company Act, to the maximum extent permitted under the Statute.

67. The Board shall be elected or appointed by Members upon a poll vote by way of cumulative voting (the manner of voting described in this Article to be referred to as "Cumulative Voting") in the following manner:

- (i) on an election of directors, the numbers of votes attached to each voting share held by a Member shall be cumulative and be voted for the directors nominated for appointment at the general meeting provided that such votes shall only cumulate in respect of such number of directors nominated within the same category (namely, independent or non-independent) of directors to be appointed;
- (ii) the Member(s) may vote all or part of their cumulated votes in respect of one or more directors within the same category of directors to be elected;
- (iii) such number of directors receiving the highest number of votes in the same category of directors to be elected shall be appointed; and
- (iv) where two or more directors nominated for appointment receive the same number of votes which exceeds the number of new directors intended to be appointed, there shall be a draw by such directors receiving the same number of votes to determine who shall be appointed; the chairman shall draw for a director nominated for appointment who is not present at the general meeting.

68. A spousal relationship and/or a Family Relationship within the Second Degree of Kinship shall not exist among more than half (1/2) of the members of the Board (the "Threshold"), unless with the prior approval by the Designated Stock Market. Where the appointment of any person having a spousal relationship and/or a Family Relationship within the Second Degree of Kinship with any existing member of the Board or with any other person(s) also nominated for appointment as a director (the "Related Person") is proposed at a general meeting, only the following persons may be appointed as a Director:

- (i) firstly, such person(s) approved by the Members by way of Cumulative Voting and who is not a Related Person; and
- (ii) secondly, such number of Related Person(s) elected by the Members by way of Cumulative Voting and who receive the highest number of votes from the Members for its appointment among all the Related Persons and the appointment of whom would not result in contravention of the Threshold. If the existing composition of the Board fails to satisfy the Threshold, such Director in office being a Related Person shall immediately cease to be a Director of the Company.

- 68B. For as long as the Company's shares are listed on the Designated Stock Market, subject to the Applicable Law, any Director (not including Independent Director), who, during his or her term of office and in one or more transactions, deals with Shares so held by him/her and results in such Director (not including Independent Director) ceases to hold more than fifty percent (50%) of the total Shares then held by such Director (not including Independent Director) at the time of his or her appointment or election as Director (not including Independent Director) at a general meeting (the "Approval Time"), such Director (not including Independent Director) shall immediately resign or otherwise be removed or vacated from his/her office.

For as long as the Company's shares are listed on the Designated Stock Market, subject to the Applicable Law, if any person deals with Shares so held by him/her in or more transactions and results in such person ceases to hold more than fifty percent (50%) of the Shares held by him or her at the Approval Time either (i) during the period from the Approval Time to the commencement date of his or her office as Director (not including Independent Director), or (ii) during the period when the Register is closed for transfer of Shares prior to the general meeting at which the appointment or election of such person as a Director (not including Independent Director) will be proposed, his or her appointment or election as Director shall not take effect.

69. When the number of Directors falls below five (5) due to the dismissal of a Director or any Director ceases to be a Director of the Company for any reason, including but not limited to vacancy in the office of such Director(s) under Article 105, the Company shall hold an election to elect new director(s) at the next following general meeting by way of Cumulative Voting. When the number of Directors falls short by one-third (1/3) of the number prescribed by these Articles, an extraordinary general meeting shall be convened within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of the fact to hold a by-election of directors.
70. The Company shall have at least one Independent Director shall be domiciled in the ROC, and shall adopt the candidate nomination mechanism as provided by Article 192-1 of the ROC Company Law for the election of the Independent Directors..
71. When the number of Independent Directors falls below three (3) due to the dismissal of an Independent Director or the Independent Director ceases to be a Director for any reason, the vacancy of such Independent Director shall be filled and elected at the next following general meeting. When all of the Independent Directors have been dismissed or cease to be Directors, an extraordinary general meeting shall be convened within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of that fact to elect for independent directors.

72. The Independent Directors shall possess the requisite professional knowledge and shall maintain independence within the scope of their directorial duties. The Independent Directors may not have any direct or indirect interest in the Company. The professional qualifications, restrictions on shareholdings and concurrent positions held, and assessment of independence shall be subject to the relevant rules of the Applicable Law.
73. The Directors may by resolution award special remuneration to any Director of the Company undertaking any special work or services for, or undertaking any special mission on behalf of, the Company other than his ordinary routine work as Director. Any fees paid to a Director who is also counsel or solicitor to the Company, or otherwise serves it in a professional capacity shall be in addition to his remuneration as a Director.
74. A Director may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company in conjunction with his office of Director for such period and on such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as the Directors may determine.
75. A Director may act by himself or his firm in professional capacity for the Company and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a Director.
76. A shareholding qualification for Directors may be fixed by the Company in general meeting but unless and until so fixed no shareholding qualification shall be required.
77. A Director of the Company may be or become a director or other officer of or otherwise interested in any company promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as shareholder or otherwise and no such Director shall be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefits received by him as a director or officer of, or from his interest in, such other company.
78. No person shall be disqualified from the office of Director or prevented by such office from contracting with the Company, either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, nor shall any such contract or any contract or transaction entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director shall be in any way interested be or be liable to be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or transaction by reason of such Director holding office or of the fiduciary relation thereby established; provided, however, to the extent required by Applicable Laws, a Director may not vote in respect to any matter, including any contract or proposed contract or arrangement or contemplated transaction of the Company, whether on behalf of himself or as a proxy for another Director, in which such Director bears a personal interest which may conflict with and impair the interest of the Company, but the director may express his or her opinion and respond to inquiries. After the interested director has responded to inquiries raised and/or expressed his or her opinions or views and as soon as the board of directors proceed to discuss their views and vote on the relevant matter, the interested director shall excuse him or herself from such discussion and voting, but the Director shall be counted in the quorum for purposes of convening such meeting. Paragraph 2, Article 206 of the ROC Company Act, under which the provisions under Paragraph 2, Article 180 of the same law may apply mutatis mutandis shall apply to directors who may not exercise their voting rights in the process of resolving a proposal at the Company's board meeting to the maximum extent that does not contravene the laws of the Cayman Islands. A Director who is directly or indirectly interested in a contract or proposed contract or arrangement with the Company shall declare the nature of such interest as required by law to the Board and the Audit Committee. In any merger, consolidation and/or acquisition by the Company, a director who has a personal interest in any such transaction shall disclose at the Board meeting and the general meeting at which such matter is considered the essential details of such personal interest and explain the reasons why he/she approves or disapproves such transaction. The Company shall itemize the essential contents of the director's personal interest and the cause of approval or dissent to the resolution of merger, consolidation and/or acquisition in the notice to convene the general meeting. The essential contents may be posted on the website designated by the ROC competent authority in charge of securities affairs or the Company, and the Uniform Resource Locator (URL) of such website shall be indicated in the notice of such general meeting.

- 78B. Where the spouse, a blood-related relative within the second degree of kinship of a Director, or any company which has a controlling or subordinate relation with a Director has interests in the matters under discussion in the meeting of the preceding paragraph, such Director shall be deemed to have a personal interest in the matter.
79. The ordinary remuneration of the Directors shall from time to time be determined by the Board, taking into consideration market standards as well as the standards of other companies listed on the Designated Stock Market.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

80. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors who may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not, from time to time by the Statute, or by these Articles, or such regulations, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid, as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting PROVIDED HOWEVER that no regulations made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.
81. The Directors may from time to time and at any time by powers of attorney appoint any company, firm, person or body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors, to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company for such purpose and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these Articles) and for such period and subject to such conditions as they may think fit, and any such powers of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any such attorneys as the Directors may think fit and may also authorise any such attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him.
82. All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and all receipts for monies paid to the Company shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed as the case may be in such manner as the Directors shall from time to time by resolution determine.
83. The Directors shall cause minutes to be made in books provided for the purpose:
- (a) of all appointments of officers made by the Directors;
 - (b) of the names of the Directors (including those represented thereat by proxy) present at each meeting of the Directors and of any committee of the Directors;
 - (c) of all resolutions and proceedings at all meetings of the Company and of the Directors and of committees of Directors.

84. Subject to the requirements of these Articles, the Directors on behalf of the Company may pay a gratuity or pension or allowance on retirement to any Director who has held any other salaried office or place of profit with the Company or to his widow or dependants and may make contributions to any fund and pay premiums for the purchase or provision of any such gratuity, pension or allowance.
85. Subject to these Articles, the Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money and to mortgage or charge its undertaking and property or any part thereof and to issue debentures, debenture stock and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party.
86. Subject to the Applicable Law, the Board shall, within fifteen (15) calendar days after receipt of a copy of the notice by the Company or the Company's Litigious or Non-Litigious Agent of a public tender offer and relevant information to purchase shares of the Company, resolve to recommend the Members to either accept or object the tender offer purchase, and shall disclose the following by way of public announcement in any manner permitted under Applicable Law:
- (1) the type and number of shares currently held by the Directors, any Members, directly or indirectly on behalf of another, with more than ten percent (10%) of the Company's outstanding shares;
 - (2) the recommendation made by the Board based on its investigation into the identify and financial position of the tender offeror, fairness of the tender offer conditions, and validity of funding sources to the Members on such tender offer purchase, where in the opinions and reasons of every consenting and objecting Director(s) shall be indicated;
 - (3) whether there were major changes to the Company's financial conditions after the delivery of its most recent financial statements, and the contents of such changes; and
 - (4) the type, number and amount of shares of the offeror or its affiliates held, directly or indirectly on behalf of another, by the Directors or any Member holding over ten percent (10%) of the Company's outstanding shares.
87. In addition to the above, the Board shall keep copies of these Articles, the minutes of prior general meetings, financial statements, Register of Members as well as summary of the bonds and notes issued by the Company at the Company's agent for stock affairs located within the ROC for inspection or duplication by the Members from time to time by showing evidence of such Members' interest involved in the Company and specifying the scope of inspection, transcription or right to take copies. The Company shall procure its agent for stock affairs to provide with the access.
- (a) A Director engaging in any activity, or entering into any contract or transaction, which may be in competition with the business of the Company or which falls within the business scope of the Company, shall disclose in a general meeting the nature, extent and major terms of such activity, contract or transaction, and shall proceed with such activity, contract or transaction only upon approval of the Members at a general meeting by a Special Resolution.
 - (b) Without prejudice and subject to the general directors' duties that a Director owe to the Company and its shareholders under common law principals and the laws of the Cayman Islands, a Director shall perform his/her fiduciary duties of loyalty and care, and shall indemnify the Company, to the maximum extent legally permissible, from any loss incurred or suffered by the Company arising from breach of his/her fiduciary duties. If Director has made any earnings for the benefit of himself/herself or any third party due as a result of breach of his/her fiduciary duties, the Company shall, if so resolved by the Members by way of an Ordinary Resolution, take all such actions and steps as may be appropriate and to the maximum extent legally permissible to seek to recover such earnings from such relevant Director.

- (c) If a Director has, in the course of conducting the Company's business, violated any applicable laws or regulations which causes the Company to become liable for any compensation or damages to any third person, such Director shall become jointly and severally liable for such compensation or damages with the Company and to the extent that for any reason, such Director is not made jointly and severally liable with the Company, such Director shall indemnify the Company for any loss incurred or suffered by the Company for any compensation and/or damages that the Company became liable .

MANAGEMENT

89. (a) The Directors may from time to time provide for the management of the affairs of the Company in such manner as they shall think fit and the provisions contained in the three next following paragraphs shall be without prejudice to the general powers conferred by this paragraph.
- (b) Subject to these Articles, the Directors from time to time and at any time may establish any committees or agencies for managing any of the affairs of the Company and may appoint any persons to be members of such committees or any managers or agents and may fix their remuneration.
- (c) The Directors from time to time and at any time may delegate to any such committee, manager or agent any of the powers, authorities and discretions for the time being vested in the Directors and may authorise the members for the time being of any such committee, manager or agent, or any of them to fill up any vacancies therein and to act notwithstanding vacancies and any such appointment or delegation may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Directors may think fit delegation, but no person dealing in good faith and without notice of any such annulment or variation shall be affected thereby.
- (d) Any such delegates as aforesaid may be authorised by the Directors to subdelegate all or any of the powers, authorities, and discretions for the time beings vested in them.
- (e) A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present except as otherwise required by these Articles.
- (f) The Company shall establish a Compensation Committee to assist the Board in discharging its responsibilities related to the compensation and benefit policies, plans and programs of the Company, and the evaluation and remunerations, stock options or other substantive awards given to the Company's Directors and officers. For as long as the shares of the Company are listed on the Designated Stock Exchange, the professional qualification, scope of authority and other requirements of the members of the Compensation Committee shall be subject to the Applicable Law.
- (g) Members of any committee appointed by the Board may participate in a meeting of such committee by means of video conference and participation in a meeting pursuant to this provision shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

MANAGING DIRECTORS

90. The Directors may, from time to time, appoint one or more of their body to the office of

Managing Director for such term and at such remuneration (whether by way of salary, or commission, or participation in profits, or partly in one way and partly in another) as they may think fit but his appointment shall be subject to determination ipso facto if he ceases from any cause to be a Director.

91. The Directors may entrust to and confer upon a Managing Director any of the powers exercisable by them upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as they may think fit and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

92. (a) Except as otherwise provided by these Articles, the Directors shall meet together for the dispatch of business, convening, adjourning and otherwise regulating their meetings as they think fit.
- (b) The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors at a meeting of the Board shall be a majority of the number of members of the Board. For the purpose of this Article, a proxy appointed by a Director shall be counted in a quorum at a meeting at which the Director appointing him is not present
93. (a) The Company's board meetings shall be convened at least once every quarter. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be convened by the Chairman of the Board of Directors; provided, however, that the first meeting of the Board of Directors following an election of Directors shall be convened by the Director who received a ballot representing the highest number of votes at the election of Directors and shall act as chairperson of the meeting. In case there are two or more directors having the power to convene such meeting, such directors shall agree among themselves who shall act as the chairperson of the meeting.
- (b) In case the Chairman of the Board is unable to exercise his or her duties during his or her absence or for cause, the vice Chairman shall act as in his stead. In the absence of a vice Chairman or if the vice Chairman is unable to exercise his or her duties during his or her absence or for cause, the Chairman shall appoint a managing director to act in his stead. If the Company has no managing directors, a director shall be appointed in his stead. In the absence of such appointment, the chairperson of the meeting shall be elected from among the managing directors or directors by themselves.
94. The Chairman shall, at any time summon a meeting of the Board by giving at least seven (7) days notice in writing to every Director setting forth the general nature of the business to be considered, and such notice may be sent in electronic form upon the Director's consent. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, in the event of a matter considered to be urgent by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, a meeting of the Board may be convened on short notice if the quorum required under Article 92(b) is present.
95. A Director may appoint another Director to act as his proxy to attend and vote on his behalf at meetings of the Directors or any committee of Directors. When a director appoints another director as proxy to attend a board meeting, he or she shall, in each time, issue a written proxy. The proxy form shall state therein the scope of authority of such proxy with reference to the subject matters to be discussed as listed in the board meeting notice. Such appointment must be made in writing for each meeting under the hand of the appointer, and may at any time be revoked in like manner, and may be general (i.e. a blanket authority for the particular meeting) or for specified resolutions, and may authorise and direct the appointee to be chairman if the appointer would, if present, be entitled to preside. The form of appointment of proxy may contain directions to the proxy to vote in accordance with instructions given by that Director or, in the absence of such instructions, the proxy may act in his discretion. Notice of every such appointment or revocation must be presented to the meeting of Directors at which the proxy is to be used or first used prior to the commencement of such meeting. A proxy may be given by telex, telefax or in electronic mail. A proxy shall ipso facto cease to be a proxy for a Director if his appointer ceases for any reason to be a Director; however, such proxy or any other Director may be re-appointed by the Directors to serve as a proxy. A director may act as a proxy for only one other director.

96. Directors may participate in any meeting of the Board by video conference and participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, but shall fax in attendance sheet in lieu of signing it in person.
97. A meeting shall be called to order by the chairperson of the board meeting when the scheduled meeting time has arrived and the quorum is present. If the quorum is not present at the scheduled commencement time of the meeting, the chairperson of the meeting may announce to postpone the meeting with the postponement not more than twice. If a quorum is not constituted after the second postponement, the chairperson shall convene a new meeting.
98. All acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors (including any person acting as a proxy) shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any Director or proxy Director, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and qualified to be a Director or proxy Director as the case may be.
99. The following matters shall be brought to the Company's board meeting for discussion and if thought fit, approval. Except in an unexpected emergency or for good reason, the matters described below shall be set out in the notice of meeting, and may not be raised by an extempore motion.
 - (a) The Company's business plan;
 - (b) Annual financial report and semi-annual financial report;
 - (c) Internal control system established or amended in accordance with the provisions under Article 14-1 of the ROC Securities and Exchange Act (hereinafter as the "ROC SEA");
 - (d) Procedure for handling important financial and business activities such as the acquisition or disposition of assets, derivative products transactions, lending of capital, endorsement for third party, provision of guarantee, established or amended in accordance with the provisions under Article 36-1 of the ROC SEA;
 - (e) Offering, issue or private placement of securities of the nature of equity;
 - (f) Appointment and/or dismissal of a financial, accounting or internal audit officers; and
 - (g) Matters to be resolved at general meeting or by the board meeting under Article 14-3 of the ROC SEA, other laws and regulations or the Articles of Association, or other important matters required by the competent authority.

For matters to be resolved at general meeting or by the board meeting under Article 14-3 of the ROC SEA, independent directors shall attend a meeting in person or appoint another independent director to attend the meeting on his or her behalf and may not appoint a proxy who is not an independent director as his or her proxy. Any objection or reservation that an independent director may have shall be specified in the minutes of proceedings of the board meeting. If an independent director wishing to express his or her objection or reservation is unable to attend the board meeting in person, he or she shall provide a written statement providing his view and opinions on the relevant matters for consideration at the board meeting and his statement shall be included in the minutes of the board meeting, unless his/her absence is for good cause.

100. The Company's board meeting shall be conducted in accordance with the procedure of the meeting as scheduled and may be subject to change upon consent of a majority of the directors present at the meeting.
The chairperson of the meeting may not declare adjournment without the consent of a majority of the directors present at the meeting.
During the board meeting, if the directors present in the meeting are fewer than [the required quorum], upon motion filed by the director present in the meeting, the chairperson shall declare suspension of the meeting and the provisions under Article 97 may apply mutatis mutandis.
101. When the directors are deliberating in respect of a resolution to be adopted in a meeting of the Board, the resolution shall be deemed approved and voted on by the Board if all directors present at the meeting consented to the passing of such resolution without raising any objection when the chairperson put forward the relevant resolutions for approval. If, upon the chairperson propose the relevant resolution for approval, a director states his dissent, the resolution shall be voted on in the manner set out below. The said "all directors present at the meeting" do not include directors who may not exercise their voting rights in accordance with the Article 78.
Formal votes shall be cast for the proposal in the agenda of the Company's board meeting. Formal votes may be cast in one of the following manners as determined by the chairperson; provided, however, that when a person present at the meeting files an objection, the decision shall be made according to majority votes:
(a) Vote by show of hands or by voting system;
(b) Roll-call vote;
(c) Vote by ballots; or
(d) Any other voting method as determined by the Board.
102. Unless a higher approval threshold is required under the ROC SEA and the ROC Company Act, a proposal to be resolved at the Company's board meeting shall be approved by consent of a majority of the directors present at the meeting attended by a majority of all directors. In case of an amendment or substitute to a proposal and to the extent that is permissible under applicable laws, the chairperson shall decide on the order of vote by combining the amendment or substitute with the same proposal. However, if one of the proposals has been approved, the others shall be deemed overruled and no further vote is required. If certain persons shall be designated to scrutinize balloting and count ballots for voting on proposals, these persons shall be appointed by the chairperson. The persons responsible for scrutinizing balloting shall be directors. Results of the votes shall be announced on the spot and recorded.
103. Minutes of a meeting of the Board shall be signed or sealed by the chairperson and secretary of the meeting and copies thereof shall be distributed to all directors within twenty (20) days of the meeting. The minutes shall be deemed as important files of the Company and be properly kept during existence of the Company. Minutes may be produced and issued to the Directors in electronic form.
104. To the maximum extent permitted under the laws of the Cayman Islands and the Statute, the Members may, by Special Resolution, adopt or amend any rules and procedures, including the Procedural Rules for the Board of Directors, governing the meeting of the Board; In the event of any inconsistency between the main content of these Articles and the Procedural Rules for the Board of Directors, the Articles shall prevail to the extent required by any Applicable Laws.

VACATION OF OFFICE OF DIRECTOR

105. The office of a Director shall be vacated:
- (1) is removed from office pursuant to these Articles (including ceasing to be a director automatically for being in breach of Article 107);
 - (2) dies or becomes bankrupt, or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally;
 - (3) is or becomes of unsound mind or an order for his detention is made under applicable laws of the Cayman Islands relating to mental health or any analogous law of a jurisdiction outside the Cayman Islands, or dies;
 - (4) resigns his office by notice in writing to the Company; or
 - (5) is the subject of a court order for his removal in accordance with Article 108.

REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

106. Notwithstanding any provision in these Articles to the contrary or any agreement between the Company and such Director (but without prejudice to any claim for damages under any such agreement), a Director may be removed by way of a Special Resolution of the Members at any time before the expiration of his period of office.
107. Any person who falls within any of the following categories shall not be appointed a Director of the Company. If for any reason he becomes a Director, he shall cease to be a Director of the Company forthwith upon the Company having actual notice that a breach of this Article 107 has been made, without any further action required on the part of the Company or such Director in question:
- (1) any person having committed an offense as specified in the ROC Statute of Prevention of Organization Crimes and subsequently convicted of a crime, and has not started serving the sentence, has not completed serving the sentence, or five (5) years have not elapsed since completion of serving the sentence, expiration of the probation, or pardon; or
 - (2) any person having committed an offense involving fraud, breach of trust or misappropriation and subsequently convicted with imprisonment for a term of more than one (1) year, and has not started serving the sentence, has not completed serving the sentence, or two (2) years have not elapsed since completion of serving the sentence, expiration of the probation, or pardon; or
 - (3) any person having committed the offense as specified in the Anti-corruption Act and subsequently convicted of a crime, and has not started serving the sentence, has not completed serving the sentence, or two (2) years have not elapsed since completion of serving the sentence, expiration of the probation, or pardon; or
 - (4) any person having been adjudicated bankrupt or adjudicated of the commencement of liquidation process by a court, and has not been reinstated to his rights and privileges; or
 - (5) any person having been dishonoured for unlawful use of credit instruments, and the term of such sanction has not yet expired; or
 - (6) any person having no or only limited capacity; or
 - (7) any person having been adjudicated of the commencement of assistantship (as defined in Taiwan Civil Code) and such assistantship having not been revoked yet.

108. In case a Director has, in the course of performing his duties, committed any act resulting in material damage to the Company or in material violation of applicable laws and/or regulations and/or these Articles, but not removed by the Members in the general meeting, Member(s) holding not less than three percent (3%) of the total number of outstanding shares of the Company may, within thirty (30) days after such meeting, institute a lawsuit in the court for a judgment to remove such Director. Such lawsuit may be submitted to a competent court having jurisdiction, including the Taipei District Court as the court of first instance.

SEAL

109. (a) The Company may, if the Directors so determine, have a Seal which shall, subject to paragraph (c) hereof, only be used by the authority of the Directors or of a committee of the Directors authorised by the Directors in that behalf and every instrument to which the Seal has been affixed shall be signed by one person who shall be either a Director or the Secretary or Secretary-Treasurer or some person appointed by the Directors for the purpose.
- (b) The company may have for use in any place or places outside the Cayman Islands a duplicate Seal or Seals each of which shall be a facsimile of the Common Seal of the Company and, if the Directors so determine, with the addition on its face of the name of every place where it is to be used.
- (c) A Director, Secretary or other officer or representative or attorney may without further authority of the Directors affix the Seal of the Company over his signature alone to any document of the Company required to be authenticated by him under Seal or to be filed with the Registrar of Companies in the Cayman Islands or elsewhere wheresoever.

OFFICERS

110. (a) The Company may have an officer appointed by the Directors who may also from time to time appoint such other officers as they consider necessary, all for such terms, at such remuneration and to perform such duties, and subject to such provisions as to disqualification and removal as the Directors from time to time prescribe. An officer shall exercise his/her duties in accordance with any resolution adopted by the general meeting of the Members or the Board, and any instructions from the Chairman from time to time.
- (b) An officer shall, in the course of conducting the Company's business, bear the same indemnification liabilities as a Director which are prescribed under these Articles and the Applicable Law, including, but not limited to the liabilities provided under subparagraphs (b) and (c) of Article 88, if such officer breaches his/her duties and the Company became liable for any third party compensation or damages.

DIVIDENDS, DISTRIBUTIONS, RESERVE AND POWER TO SET ASIDE PROFIT

111. (a) Unless otherwise provided in the Applicable Law, where the Company makes profits before tax for the last annual financial year, the Company shall allocate (1) no less than one percent (1%) of such annual profits before tax for the purpose of employees' remunerations (including employees of the Company and/or any Affiliated Company)

- (the "Employees' Remunerations"); and (2) no more than three percent (3%) of such annual profits before tax for the purpose of Directors' remunerations (the "Directors' Remunerations"). Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, if the Company has accumulated losses carried forward from the previous years as of the last annual financial year, the Company shall set aside from the profits before tax for the last annual financial year an amount equivalent to the amount of such accumulated losses prior to the allocation of Employees' Remunerations and Directors' Remunerations.
- (b) The Employees' Remunerations may be distributed in the form of cash and/or bonus shares; the Directors' Remunerations may be distributed in the form of cash only.
 - (c) Subject to Cayman Islands law and the Applicable Law, the Employees' Remunerations and the Directors' Remunerations may be distributed upon resolution by a majority votes at a meeting of the Board of Directors attended by two-thirds (2/3) or more of the Directors, and shall be reported to the Shareholders at the general meeting after such Board resolutions are passed.
 - (d) Unless otherwise provided in the Applicable Law and subject to Article 47, the net profits (after allocations of profits before tax in accordance with Article 111(a)) of the Company for each annual financial year shall be allocated in the following order and proposed by the Board of Directors to the Shareholders in the general meeting for approval by way of on ordinary resolution:
 - i. to make provision of the applicable amount of income tax pursuant to applicable tax laws and regulations;
 - ii. to set off accumulated losses of previous years (if any);
 - iii. to set aside ten percent (10%) as legal reserve pursuant to the Applicable Law for so long as the accumulated amount of such legal reserve does not exceed the total paid-up share capital of the Company;
 - iv. to set aside an amount as Special Reserve or to transfer amounts standing to the credit of the Special Reserve to another account pursuant to the Applicable Law and requirements of the Commission; and
 - v. with respect to the earnings available for distribution (i.e. the net profit after the deduction of the items (a) to (d) above plus any previously undistributed cumulative Retained Earnings), the Board of Directors may present a proposal to distribute to the Shareholders by way of dividends at the annual general meeting for approval by an ordinary resolution pursuant to the Applicable Law.
 - (e) The Company's dividends policy is that the Company shall refer to current and future industrial prosperity and consider fund demand and financial structure of the Company. With respect to the earnings available for distribution, except for reserving part thereof for such purposes as considered appropriate by the Directors depending on the financial needs and circumstances of the Company, remaining retained earnings may be distributed to the Shareholders in the form of cash dividends and/or bonus shares; provided that Cash dividends shall comprise a minimum of ten percent (10%) of the allocated dividends.
112. Where the Directors determine that a dividend shall be paid wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets, the Directors may settle all questions concerning such distribution. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Directors may fix the value of such specific assets and vest any such specific assets in trustees on such terms as the Directors think fit.
113. Dividends may be declared and paid out of profits of the Company, realised or unrealised, or from any reserve set aside from profits which the Directors determine is no longer needed, or not in the same amount. Subject to the requirement of these Articles, dividends may also be declared and paid out of share premium account or any other fund or account which can be authorised for this purpose in accordance with the Statute.

114. Subject to the requirement of these Articles, the Board may declare and make such other distributions (in cash or in specie) to the Members as may be lawfully made out of the assets of the Company.
115. (a) No unpaid dividend or distribution shall bear interest against the Company.
(b) The Board shall establish an account to be called the share premium account and shall carry to the credit of such account from time to time a sum equal to the amount or value of the premium paid on the issue of any share in the Company. Unless otherwise provided by the provisions of these Articles, the Board may apply the share premium account in any manner permitted by the Statute. The Company shall at all times comply with the provisions of the Statute in relation to the share premium account.

CAPITALISATION

116. (a) The Company may, with the approval by way of Special Resolution of the Members, capitalise any sum for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's share premium or other reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution by applying such sum in paying up unissued shares to be allotted as fully paid bonus shares pro rata to the Members.
(b) The Company may, with the approval by way of Special Resolution of the Members, resolve to capitalise any sum for the time being standing to the credit of a reserve account or sums otherwise available for dividend or distribution by applying such amounts in paying up in full, partly paid, or nil paid shares of those Members who would have been entitled to such sums if they were distributed by way of dividend or distribution.
(c) Notwithstanding Articles 116(a) and 116(b) above, the Board may, without the approval of the Members, capitalise any sum for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's share premium or other reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution by applying such sum in paying up unissued shares of the Company to be allotted as fully paid bonus shares for the purpose of the Employees' Remunerations (as defined in Article 111(a)).

BOOKS OF ACCOUNT

117. The Directors shall cause proper books of account to be kept with respect to:
- (a) all sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which the receipt or expenditure takes place;
(b) all sales and purchases of goods by the Company;
(c) the assets and liabilities of the Company.

Proper books shall not be deemed to be kept if there are not kept such books of account as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs and to explain its transactions.

118. At the close of each fiscal year, the Board shall prepare the business report, financial statements and the surplus earning distribution or loss offsetting proposals for adoption by the annual general meeting and shall submit such report, statements and proposals for verification by the Audit Committee prior to the date of the annual general meeting. The Board shall, upon adoption by the annual general meeting, distribute to each Member copies of adopted financial statements and the resolutions on the surplus earning distribution and/or loss offsetting in accordance with these Articles and Applicable Laws, and for as long as the Company's shares are listed on the Designated Stock Market, such distribution may be effected by means of a public notice in accordance with the Applicable Law.

119. A printed copy of each of the Directors' report(s) or statement(s) to be submitted for adoption by the general meeting shall be kept at the Company's agent for stock affairs located within the ROC for inspection by the Members from time to time at least ten (10) days before the date of the annual general meeting, and laid before the Company at the annual general meeting.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

120. The Company shall establish an Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall comprise solely of Independent Directors and the number of committee members shall not be less than three (3). One of the Audit Committee members shall be appointed as the convener to convene meetings of the Audit Committee from time to time and at least one of the Audit Committee members shall have accounting or financial expertise. A valid resolution of the Audit Committee requires approval of one-half (1/2) or more of all its members.
121. Notwithstanding anything provided to the contrary contained herein, the following matters require approval of the Audit Committee and final approval of the Board:
- (a) adoption of or amendment to an internal control system;
 - (b) assessment of the effectiveness of the internal control system;
 - (c) adoption of or amendment to the handling procedures for financial or operational actions of material significance, such as acquisition or disposal of assets, derivatives trading, extension of monetary loans to others, or endorsements or guarantees for others;
 - (d) any matter relating to the personal interest of the Directors;
 - (e) the entering into of a transaction that has material effect on the assets of the Company or a material derivatives transaction;
 - (f) a material monetary loan, endorsement, or provision of guarantee;
 - (g) the offering, issuance, or private placement of any equity-linked securities;
 - (h) the hiring or dismissal of an attesting certified public accountant as the auditor of the Company, or the compensation given thereto;
 - (i) the appointment or discharge of a financial, accounting, or internal auditing officer;
 - (j) approval of annual and semi-annual financial reports; and
 - (k) any other material matter so required by Applicable Law or the competent authority.

With the exception of item (j), any other matter that has not been approved with the consent of one-half or more of all Audit Committee members may be undertaken upon the consent of two-thirds or more of the members of the Board, and the resolution of the Audit Committee shall be recorded in the minutes of the Directors meeting.

122. Subject to the Statute, the accounts of the Company shall be audited at least once in every year.

123. The Audit Committee shall at all reasonable times have access to all books kept by the Company and to all accounts and vouchers relating thereto; and he may call on the Directors or officers of the Company for any information in their possession relating to the books or affairs of the Company.
124. The statement of income and expenditure and the balance sheet provided for by these Articles shall be examined by the Audit Committee and compared with the books, accounts and vouchers relating thereto; and the Audit Committee shall make a written report thereon stating whether such statement and balance sheet are drawn up so as to present fairly the financial position of the Company and the results of its operations for the period under review and, in case information shall have been called for from Directors or officers of the Company, whether the same has been furnished and has been satisfactory. The Audit Committee may appoint, on behalf of the Company, a practicing lawyer and/or a certified public accountant to conduct the examination. The financial statements of the Company shall be audited by an auditor appointed by the Board in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. The auditor shall make a written report thereon in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and the report of the auditor shall be submitted to the Members in general meeting. The generally accepted auditing standards referred to herein may be those of a country or jurisdiction other than the Cayman Islands. If so, the financial statements and the report of the auditor should disclose this fact and name such country or jurisdiction.
125. Where a Director is or may be in breach of his duties and subject to and if permitted by Applicable Law, one or more Member(s) of the Company holding one-percent (1%) or more of the total number of the outstanding voting shares of the Company continuously for a period of six (6) months or more may request the Audit Committee, if permitted by Applicable Law, to institute a lawsuit against such Director(s) on behalf of the Company in a competent court having jurisdiction, including, if applicable, the Taipei District Court as the court of first instance. Where the Audit Committee fails to institute a lawsuit against the Director(s) within thirty (30) days of receipt of such request from the Member(s), such one or more Member(s) of the Company holding one-percent (1%) or more of the total number of the outstanding voting shares of the Company continuously for a period of six (6) months or more, subject to and if permitted by Applicable Law, may initiate a lawsuit against the Director(s) on behalf of the Company in a competent court having jurisdiction, including, if applicable the Taipei District Court as the court of first instance.
126. To the extent permitted by the Statute, in respect of matters relating to or concerning the Audit Committee not otherwise specified in these Articles, the Applicable Law shall apply.
- 126B.
- (a) Before any resolution for merger/consolidation and acquisition is proposed to the Board of Directors for consideration and approval, Audit Committee shall review the fairness and reasonableness of the plan and terms of the merger/consolidation or acquisition, and then report their review outcome to the Board of Directors and Members of the Company if a resolution of Members of the Company is required for such matter under Applicable Laws or these Articles.
 - (b) When Audit Committee review any transaction, it shall seek opinions from an independent expert on the justification of the share exchange ratio or distribution of cash or other assets.
 - (c) Review outcome of audit committee and opinions of independent experts shall be provided to each shareholder together with the notice of the general shareholders' meeting. If the relevant transaction does not require approval of the Members under the laws of the Cayman Islands or these Articles, reports of the audit committee and opinions of independent experts shall be provided at the next following general meeting for Members' information.

- (d) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in these Articles, to the extent permissible under Applicable Law, if the Company has posted the report of the audit committee together with opinions of independent experts (if any) on a website designated by ROC competent authority and such report and expert's opinions are made available for inspection at the general meeting, such report and expert's opinions are deemed to have been duly provided to each shareholder as required under sub-paragraph (c) above.

WINDING UP

127. If the company shall be wound up the liquidator may, with the sanction of a Special Resolution of the company and any other sanction required by the statute, divide amongst the Members in specie or kind the whole or any part of the assets of the Company (whether they shall consist of property of the same kind or not) and may for such purpose set such value as he deems fair upon any property to be divided as aforesaid and may determine how such division shall be carried out as between the Members or different classes of Members. The liquidator may with like sanction, vest the whole or any part or such assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator, with the like sanction, shall think fit, but so that no Member shall be compelled to accept any shares or other securities whereon there is any liability.
128. If the Company shall be wound up, and the assets available for distribution amongst the Members as such shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid-up capital, such assets shall be distributed so that, as nearly as may be, the losses shall be borne by the Members in proportion to the capital paid up, or which ought to have been paid up, at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively. And if in a winding up the assets available for distribution amongst the Members shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up, the excess shall be distributed amongst the Members in proportion to the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively. This Article is to be without prejudice to the rights of the holders of shares issued upon special terms and conditions.

INDEMNITY

129. The Directors and officers for the time being of the Company and any trustee for the time being acting in relation to any of the affairs of the Company and their heirs, executors, administrators and personal representatives respectively shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company from and against all actions, proceedings, costs, charges, losses, damages and expenses which they or any of them shall or may incur or sustain by reason of any act or omitted in or about the execution of their duty in their respective offices or trusts, except such (is any) as they shall incur or sustain by or through their own breach of duties (in which case they shall become liable to indemnify the Company in accordance with Articles 88(b), 88(c) and/or 110(b)), willful neglect or default respectively and no such Director, officer or trustee shall be answerable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other Director, officer or trustee or for joining in any receipt for the sake of conformity or for the solvency or honesty of any banker or other persons with whom any monies or effects belonging to the Company may be lodged or deposited for safe custody or for any insufficiency of any security upon which any monies of the Company may be invested or for any other loss or damage due to any such cause as foresaid or which may happen in or about the execution of the office or trust unless the same shall happen through the breach of duties (in which case they shall become liable to indemnify the Company in accordance with Articles 88(b), 88(c) and/or 110(b)), willful neglect or default of such Director, Officer of trustee.

FINANCIAL YEAR

130. Unless the directors otherwise prescribe, the financial year of the Company shall end on 31st December in each year and, following the year of incorporation, shall begin on 1st January in each year.

AMENDMENTS OF ARTICLES

131. Subject to the Statute, the Company may at any time and from time to time by Special Resolution alter or amend these Articles in whole or in part.

TRANSFER BY OF CONTINUATION

132. If the Company is exempted as defined in the Statute, it shall, subject to the provisions of the Statute and with the approval of a Special Resolution, have the power to register by way of continuation as a body corporate under the laws of any jurisdiction outside the Cayman Islands and to be deregistered in the Cayman Islands.

THE LAWS OF THE ROC

133. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary herein, any Applicable Laws (other than the laws of the Cayman Islands) shall only apply to the maximum extent permissible under the laws of the Cayman Islands and the Statute.
